

Pulpit Minister

Availability: Spring/Summer 2023

The Eielson Church of Christ in Moose Creek, Alaska is seeking a minister to serve with the congregation as we work to reach out to our community and grow in our labor for the Lord. We are a small, self-supporting congregation with no elders. Since we are located between two military installations, we prefer a minister with military experience.

Duties/Responsibilities/Characteristics

- Someone who is Biblically and doctrinally sound with a proven ability to preach, teach, organize and lead an evangelist outreach program
- Deliver sermons Sunday morning and evening, also teach adult classes
- Have a passion for saving lost souls and a strong desire to equip and restore the saints
- Help plan and implement programs and activities for the spiritual and growth of our congregation
- Energetic/outgoing personality who is able to communicate easily with people of all ages, genders and ethnicities
- Provide spiritual counseling for congregation members when needed
- Visit the sick and shut-in members
- provide weekly inputs to church bulletin.

Additionally, the congregation owns a three bedroom/two bath home adjacent to the building. We provide all utilities. Salary is negotiable based on education and experience.

Applicants should be aware that we are located in interior Alaska where winter temperatures can drop to minus 50 degrees. There is mostly darkness during the winter months and mostly sunlight, warm weather, and mosquitoes during our short summers. Popular activities include hunting, fishing, and exploring the beautiful mountains and scenery.

Interested applicants should email (preferred) or mail a resume, list of references (at least 3) and audio or video recordings of recent sermons or link to recent sermon. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us.
